Ty-Lynn Johnson

Ty-Lynn Johnson is an investment professional in the Multi-Asset Strategies & Solutions (MASS) investment group at the heart of BlackRock's portfolio construction, asset allocation, and active management ecosystem. Prior to joining the Multi-Asset Strategies & Solutions team, Ty-Lynn began his journey as a BlackRock Founders Scholar within the Private Investors team in Princeton, NJ, selected as 1 of 16 out of a global pool of 322 interns. Ty also completed internships with KPMG in their Deal Advisory practice, and the City of Newark as a Student Intern in their Economic, Housing, and Development department. During his time in undergrad, he was awarded multiple scholarships including entering Rutgers as part of the inaugural class of Honors Living Learning Community scholars. He also was hand-selected to attend two fully subsidized cultural immersion trips to Japan, representing the Rutgers Business School, and also to Israel with the Jewish National Fund as part of its annual Caravan for Democracy trip. Ty-Lynn graduated Magna Cum Laude, and possesses a Bachelor's Degree in Finance from Rutgers Business School.
