

Rutgers Business School

Starting Your Career on the right

ARE YOU A HIGH SCHOOL HIGH SCHOOL STUDENT OR A COMMUNITY COLLEGE TRANSFER STUDENT? (PARENTS ARE WELCOME!)

This is an opportunity to enhance your skills to make your college career a successful one. Besides introducing you to the Rutgers Business School, we have put together a program that will focus on many of the soft skills necessary to start off your career on the right  and differentiate yourself from the crowd!

There are 6 workshops that will be held from 10:30 am to 12:00 pm on the following Saturdays (details are on page #2). We have workshops for both students and parents:

- Jan 9, 2021: Introduction and Orientation (Students and Parents)
- Jan 23, 2021: What is your TRUE COLOR? (Students)
Financing your college applications (Parents)
- Feb 6, 2021: Network, Network, Network!!! (Students)
- Feb 20, 2021: College Student Panel (Students)
College from a parent's perspective (Parents)
- Mar 6, 2021: Managing a Business during a pandemic! (Students)
- Apr 3, 2021: Make Yourself Effective (Students)
The college admissions process (Parents)

Free!!!

You're Invited!

Where: Virtual Workshops (Click here for ZOOM Link)

Password: 274550

When: Saturdays (per the schedule)

Time: 10:30 a.m. – 12:00 p.m.

If you have any questions, please contact
Dean Lucille Foster: lufoster@rutgers.edu

Register by December 19, 2020 by clicking in this box!!!

Starting Your Career on the Right

Rutgers Business School

Virtual Sessions

Session Title Students/Parents	Student Session Description	Parent Session Description	Session Date
Introduction and Orientation (Parent Session is jointly with students)	Let's meet each other! This session we will introduce the program, Starting Your Career on the Right Foot , to all students and parents. All are welcome to meet the Program Coordinator and ask any questions regarding the scheduled sessions.	Jointly with the students.	Saturday January 9, 2021 10:00-11:30 am
What is Your True Color? Financing you child's education	Learning about your personality traits and how they interact with others is greatly used in business when forming successful teams. This interactive session illustrates how communication, actions and motivations are a result of personalities.	The cost of college can be daunting and navigating the financial landscape can be difficult. Learn about financing your child's education!	Saturday January 23, 2021 10:00-11:30 am
Network, network, network!!!	Networking is a primary skill in developing your career. This interactive session will increase your awareness of networking and assist in developing your networking skills.		Saturday February 6, 2021 10:00-11:30 am
College Student Panel What should I expect when my child goes to college?	Learn what it is like to transition from high school to college. Get first-hand knowledge from several Rutgers Business School college students and recent Alumni that will discuss academics, extra curriculars, internships, resume building and the social aspect.	Going to college is a big step for the student but also for the parent. We are going to have a fun discussion regarding managing your expectations when your child goes off to college.	Saturday February 20, 2021 10:00-11:30 am
Managing a Business in a Pandemic	A panel of Business Executives will discuss how the pandemic impacted their business and what actions needed to be taken to guide them successfully.		Saturday March 6, 2021 10:00-11:30 am
Make Yourself Effective! (Parent Session is jointly with students)	Learn how to implement the Seven Habits of Highly Effective People ¹ in your everyday behaviors. This presentation is interactive with activities, videos and discussion.	The College Admissions Process Applying to college can be overwhelming without an understanding of the process. This session will demystify the application process and put you on the path to success.	Saturday April 3, 2021 10:00-11:30 am

Here is the information to join the sessions in Zoom

¹ The 7 Habits of Highly Effective People, first published in 1989, is a business and self-help book written by Stephen Covey.